SUMMARY

Members of the SF Bay Conservation and Development Commission (BCDC) enforcement staff invited members of the City of Sausalito Waterfront Management Committee to meet with them on Tuesday, November 12 in preparation for a meeting with the BCDC Enforcement Committee on Wednesday, November 20.

BACKGROUND

Members of the City of Sausalito Waterfront Management Committee have met several times with member of BCDC enforcement staff and have twice presented updates on the City's waterfront enforcement efforts to the BCDC Enforcement Committee.

DISCUSSION/ANALYSIS

City Councilmember Joan Cox, City Councilmember Tom Reilly, City Manager Adam Politzer, Chief of Police John Rohrbacher, and Police Captain Bill Fraass met with BCDC Regulatory Program Manager Brad McCrea, Enforcement Program Manager Priscilla Nguguna, Enforcement Attorney Karen Donovan, and Chief of Enforcement Adrienne Klein at the BCDC office in San Francisco on Tuesday, November 12. The agenda for this meeting is attached to this staff report.

At this meeting we learned that contrary to their initial invitation to attend the meeting on November 20 to be available to answer questions from the BCDC Enforcement

Committee, we were now invited to prepare a presentation on our enforcement efforts since our last presentation on September 6, 2019. Due to the short turnaround time, more detailed information will be shared with the City Council at the meeting on November 19.
