

PROCLAMATION NO. 19-__

WHEREAS, Enid Chandler Barnes, known to many as Mrs. Sappington, in honor of her service and dedication as a Historic Sappington House volunteer for 46 years; and

WHEREAS, she has been a devoted Historic Sappington House volunteer, serving in many roles including President and Vice President of the Foundation and as a Museum coordinator where she compiled the docent bible still in use today; and

WHEREAS, Enid Barnes has been an ambassador and champion of the Historic Sappington House where she served as an interpreter and museum guide for many generations of fourth graders studying Missouri history as well as high school students studying Archaeology, University of Missouri-St. Louis museum studies graduate students, and tourist of all ages; and

WHEREAS, she has also been a generous contributor and devoted fundraiser for the Historic Sappington House through her involvement producing a cookbook for sale as well as helping with many special events including, but not limited to, Trivia Nights, Ice Cream Socials, Big Band Concerts, and the Historic Sappington House 50th Anniversary, and;

WHEREAS, Enid Barnes was the recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution National Historic Preservation Award in 2005 and in 2017, and the National Women in American History Award in 2017.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Grant Mabie, Mayor of the City of Crestwood, Missouri, do hereby recognize

“ENID CHANDLER BARNES”

For her lifelong commitment to civic engagement and honoring her service, excellence, and dedication to the Historic Sappington House and the City of Crestwood.

DATED THIS 10th DAY OF DECEMBER, 2019.

Grant Mabie
Mayor

ATTEST:

Helen Ingold
City Clerk