For approximately 3 years I volunteered at the Lyon County Animal Services shelter in Silver Springs to feed on Sundays. I have been the President of Animal Rescue Group of Northern Nevada since 2012, and although we focus our efforts on cats, we are equally interested in the welfare and law pertaining to all domestic animals in our county. I am very familiar with Title 7. Having been a resident of Lyon County since 1995 and always interested in animal affairs, I feel that I am well qualified to join this board as an objective and informed member. I am well known in the community as an active participant in various Chamber of Commerce and other events including the Lyon County Fly In. As my full-time employment is Administrative Assistant to the Silver Springs Stagecoach Hospital District I am familiar with making reports. I am very familiar with open meeting law and State of Nevada ethics.
